

Presents

India's first pictorial coffee table book on the 51 most powerful women of the country.

A collector's delight, the book is printed on imported ivory high quality paper and is in full colour.

INDIA'S MOST POWERFUL WOMEN BY PREM AHLUWALIA

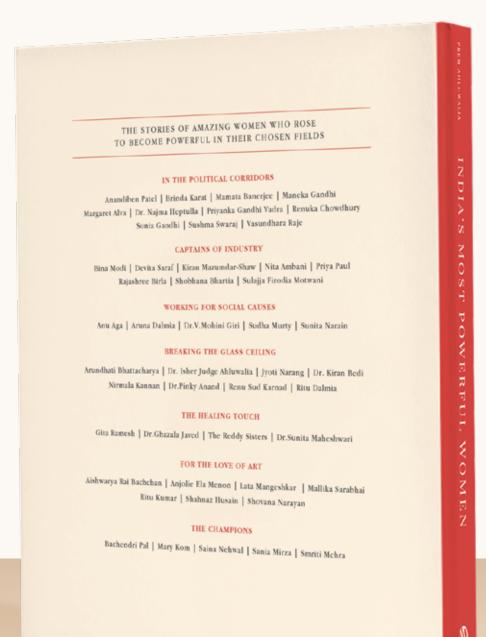

Pages: 244 | Size: 8.25" x 11.75" | Price: ₹4500 or US$100

ABOUT THE BOOK

Women in India are emerging from the shadows to claim an equal stake in society, redefining the scope of power. More women are now in the forefront. They now rule the corporate world and are at the helm of public life. They headline the financial, technology, trade, and medical sectors. They are achievers in arts, culture, sports, and entertainment. It is amazing how Indian women have broken the glass ceiling and found a place for themselves in the global womanpower lists. However, it was no easy task for these super achievers. In this book, these remarkable women talk about their lives, their struggles, and achievements and most importantly about their journey and on-going tryst with power.

These are inspirational stories of women who are truly empowered. The women that have been featured in the book are:

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

PREM AHLUWALIA is a journalist and a women's rights activist. She is the Associate Editor of Young India, national political news weekly, and the Editor of Safari India, a leading travel magazine. She is Founder Member and National General Secretary of All India Mahila Dakshata Samiti, a national women's organisation; Director, Institute of South Asian Women and Deputy Secretary General, Pacific Area Travel Writers Association.

Widely travelled, she has attended several international conferences in the Americas, Europe, Middle East, South Asia, South East Asia, New Zealand and the Pacific.

Prem has organized several seminars, workshops, and rallies on women issues in India and abroad. She has been honoured with several awards for her contribution towards the women's movement in India. Prem is also an artist and enjoys painting with oil and acrylic. Her paintings can be viewed on her website www.artprema.com.

Prem lives in Delhi with her husband in New Delhi.

Contact: Cell 9899535075 Email prem_isaw@hotmail.com

